AT THE THEATRES.

Last Days of "Wang."

There remains but one more week in which to see DeWolf Hopper and his clever confreres in "Wang" at the Broadway Theatre, New York city, as the final performances are positively announced, and on Saturday evening, October 15, "Wang" and his merry retinue will make their final bow to Metropolitan theatre-goers.

On Monday evening, October 17, Mr. Hopper will revive "The Lady or the Tiger," Sydney Rosenfeld's sparkling comic-opera, for which Julius J. Lyons has composed several new musical numbers, and it will be continued until the close of the present Hopper engagement at the Broadway Theatre, on November 19.

A notable addition has been made to the company in the person of Jefferson D'Angella, for many years the leading comedian at the Casino, who has been specially engaged to play the part of Menander, the prophet. Mr. Hopper will essay the role of Pausanias, the regent of Sparta, which, with that of the prophet, the two comedians made famous during the original run of the opera at Wallack's—now Palmer's—Theatre, a few years ago.

The numerous friends and admirers of Della Fox will have an opportunity of seeing the charming little artist in an entirely new role, that of Hilaria, an ingenious Greek maiden, whom truth compels to disclose all the secrets confided to her. Marie Millard and Anna O'Keefe, will alternate in the role of Irene, the regent's daughter, and the other characters of the opera will be assigned to Marion Singer, Agnes Bailey, Samuel Reed, Edmund Stanley, Alfred Klein, and the remaining principals of the company.

Active rehearsals are now in progress, and the management promise that the opera will be elaborately staged, magnificently costumed, and also that the choral numbers will be correctly sung by a large and powerful chorus. The 450th and third souvenir performance of "Wang" took place on last Monday evening, on which occasion a handsome souvenir in the form of a mirror, upon which the principals were photographed, were distributed to Mr. Hopper's auditors.

The management will, by request, give a special matinee on Wednesday afternoon, October 12, for the benefit of "Wang's" out-of-town friends and admirers.

"A Trip to Chinatown."

"A Trip to Chinatown," at Hoyt's Madison Square Theatre, continues to draw the usual large audiences in spite of the fact that all the other playhouses are now opened and that it was presented on Saturday for the three hundred and thirty-eighth consecutive time. On Friday, October 14, the three hundred and fiftieth representation will be celebrated, and each lady visitor on that evening will be presented with a pretty remembrance of the occasion. On November 9, however, the anniversary of this phenomenally successful play will take place at the Hoyt Madison Square Theatre and the unique event duly commemorated by Messrs. Hoyt & Thomas. Never before in the history of the stage, either in this country or in the old world, has a farce comedy been able to run for so long a time, and in this case Mr. Hoyt's clever comedy has not alone drawn full houses—every seat in the pretty auditorium being sold for each performance—but it continued to do so during the entire summer, the hottest in over twenty years, and for months it was the only regular theatre in the great metropolis that was enabled by its popular success to keep its doors open. Up to the present time 226,700 people have seen the irresistibly funny play, and $224,792 has been taken in through the little hole in the Treasurer's office; 112,560 sheets of printing have been spread on the walls of the great metropolis and its suburbs, and a fortune paid the newspapers for advertising. During that time 64 persons directly connected have found steady employment, and a small army have indirectly profited by Hoyt & Thomas's wonderful success.

The Testimonials

Published in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla are not extravagant, are not "written up," nor are they from its employees. They are facts and prove that Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses absolute merit and is worthy the full confidence of the people.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, effective, but do not cause pain or gripe. Be sure to get Hood's.—Advt.

The Newark Presbytery.

The Newark Presbytery held its fall meeting in the Westminster Presbyterian Church on Wednesday. This was the first time many of the members of the Presbytery had seen the new church, and they were very enthusiastic in their admiration of it and in their congratulations extended to the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Paul. Two brief sessions were held, a morning and afternoon meeting. The business transacted was of a routine character. The Committee on Education reported that Messrs. Hock, Stoerber, and Mueller, students in the German Theological Seminary, had been taken under the care of the Presbytery. The Presbytery adjourned to meet at Caldwell on the 13th inst., when the Rev. Edwin Farley will be ordained pastor of the new Presbyterian Church at Roseland. After adjournment the members of the Presbytery visited the Seminary.

Youths' Suits Cut in the Latest Fashion

There is no buyer of clothing that likes as much style on his garments as a young man from his first pair of long pants up to 22 or 23 years of age, and that is where Watson and Company please the dressy Newark boys, as they have a special designer for young men, who gives them the full fashion plate cut on all their garments.

Look at the new D. B. Dress and Walking Suits now shown in all their Broad and Market Street windows marked $10 and $12 and you will see how the cut will improve the dress appearance of a youth.—The Newark Item.

Poisoned by Scrofula

Is the sad story of many lives made miserable through no fault of their own. Scrofula is more especially than any other hereditary disease, and for this simple reason: Arising from impure blood, the disease locates itself in the lymphatics, which are composed of white tissues; there is a period of fatal life when the whole body consists of white tissues, and therefore the unborn child is especially susceptible to this dreadful disease. But there is a remedy for scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by its powerful effect on the blood expels all traces of the disease and gives to the vital fluid the quality and color of health. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not accept any substitute.—Advt.

THE PRESS, (N. Y.)

SOUVENIR EDITION, SUNDAY, OCT. 9TH, 1892.

THE COLUMBIAN CENTENNIAL ISSUE OF THE SUNDAY PRESS will be the most notable newspaper ever printed in New York.

There will be presented free with every copy an exact reproduction, in colors, of the greatest painting commemorating Columbus' discovery now in the country—Columbus before Isabella, now the property of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. The reproduction of this superb painting by the finest art process has been in preparation for THE PRESS, which secured exclusive rights, for four months. The great painting has never been reproduced before, and no copies of this special supplement of THE PRESS will be sold. They go exclusively to subscribers of THE SUNDAY PRESS, Oct. 9.

THE PRESS will give in advance every detail of the official programme for the four days' celebration arranged by the Government of the United States and the city of New York. All the pageants, all the spectacles and all the notable events of the four days' celebration will be described as far as possible in advance by PRESS reporters and artists, and the routes of the parades given.

A great historian will review for the same issue of THE PRESS the four hundred years, eloquently describing the amazing progress and development of a matchless nation.

Law in Four Centuries, described by a pre-eminent lawyer.

Labor During Four Centuries, by the pre-eminent labor leader of this day.

Religious Growth, by a world renowned preacher.

Commerce in Four Hundred Years, by a great merchant.
